SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

A. Prior Determinations in the Investigation

For background on the proceedings in this investigation, please see the prior notices issued in the following FR notices, including 82 FR 40213 (August 24, 2017), 83 FR 14906 (April 6, 2018), 83 FR 28710 (June 20, 2018), 83 FR 38760 (August 7, 2018), 83 FR 40823 (August 16, 2018), 83 FRN 47974 (September 21, 2018), and 83 FR 20459 (May 9, 2019).

On August 18, 2017, USTR initiated an investigation into certain acts, policies, and practices of the Chinese government related to technology transfer, intellectual property, and innovation (82 FR 40213). During the investigation, the United States Trade Representative determined that the acts, policies, and practices of China under investigation are unreasonable and burdensome or restrict U.S. commerce, and are thus actionable under Section 301(b) of the Trade Act of 1974 (Trade Act).

At the direction of the President, the Trade Representative determined to take actions resulting in additional 25 percent duty on products of China with an annual trade value of approximately $250 billion. The additional duties were imposed in three tranches. Tranche 1 covered 818 tariff subheadings, with an approximate annual value of $34 billion. See 83 FR 28710 (June 20, 2018). Tranche 2 covered 279 tariff subheadings, with an approximate annual value of $16 billion. See 83 FR 40823 (August 16, 2018). Tranche 3 covered 5733 tariff subheadings, with an approximate annual trade value of $200 billion. See 83 FR 47974 (September 21, 2018); 83 FR 49153 (September 28, 2018), and 83 FR 20459 (May 9, 2019).

B. Proposed Modification of Action

The United States is engaging with China with the goal of obtaining the elimination of the acts, policies, and practices covered in the investigation. The leaders of the United States and China met on December 1, 2018, and agreed to negotiate on a range of issues, including those covered in this Section 301 investigation. See <https://www.whitehouse.gov/briefings-statements/statement-press-secretary-regarding-presidents-working-group/>. Since the meeting on December 1, the United States and China have engaged in additional rounds of negotiations, including meetings in March, April, and May of 2019. Shortly in advance of the last scheduled round, China has made specific commitments made in previous rounds. China also has announced further retaliatory action against the United States.

The United States and China intend to continue further discussions.

Section 301(b) of the Trade Act provides that “the Trade Representative shall take all appropriate actions authorized under [section 301(c)], subject to the specific direction, if any, of the President regarding any action to obtain the elimination of [the] act, policy, or practice” covered in the investigation. Section 307 of the Trade Act provides that “[t]he Trade Representative may modify or terminate any action, subject to the specific direction, if any, with respect to such action, that is being taken under [section 301] if . . . the burden or restriction on United States producers resulting from the acts, policies, and practices that are the subject of such action has increased or decreased or if such action is no longer appropriate under section 301(b) of this title and is no longer appropriate.” In light of China’s failure to meaningfully respond to the specific direction of the President regarding the investigation and its response to the current action being taken, and at the direction of the President, the Trade Representative proposes to modify the action taken in this investigation.

In particular, in accordance with the direction of the President, the Trade Representative is proposing to expand the scope of the action taken in this investigation by taking further action in the form of an additional ad valorem duty of up to 25 percent on approximately 3,805 tariff subheadings set out in the Annex to this document. The proposed product list covers products of China covered in the list of 3,805 full and partial tariff subheadings set out in the Annex to this document. The proposed product list has an approximate annual trade value of $300 billion. The proposed product list covers products not currently covered by action in this investigation. The proposed product list excludes pharmaceutical inputs, select medical goods, rare earth materials, and critical minerals. Product exclusions identified by the Trade Representative on prior tranches from this investigation will not be affected.

Any merchandise subject to the increased tariffs admitted into a U.S. foreign trade zone on or after January 1, 2019, would be admitted as “privileged foreign status” as defined in 19 CFR 146.41, and would be subject upon entry to the additional duty.

D. Request for Public Comments

USTR invites comments from interested persons with respect to the proposed action to be taken in the investigation. If you believe your comment deserves consideration, you must submit written comments by June 17, 2019. Post-hearing rebuttal comments may be submitted by July 1, 2019.

be limited to rebutting or supplementing testimony at the hearing, must be submitted within seven days after the public hearing. USTR requests comments with respect to any aspect of the proposed action, including:

- The specific tariff subheadings to be subject to increased duties, including whether the subheadings listed should be retained or removed, or whether subheadings not currently on the list should be added.
- The level of the increase, if any, in the rate of duty.
- The appropriate aggregate level of trade to be covered by additional duties.

In commenting on the inclusion or removal of particular tariff subheadings listed in the Annex, USTR commenters address specifically whether imposing increased duties on a particular product would be practical to obtain the elimination of China's acts, policies, and practices, and whether imposing additional duties on such products would cause disproportionate economic harm to U.S. interests, including small- or medium-size businesses.

E. Hearing Participation

The Section 301 Committee will convene a public hearing in the main hearing room of the U.S. International Trade Commission, 500 E Street SW Washington, DC 20436, beginning at 9:30 a.m. on June 17, 2019. You must request to appear at the hearing by June 10, 2019. The request to appear must include a summary of testimony, and may be submitted by a pre-hearing submission. Remarks at the hearing may be no longer than five minutes to allow for possible questions from the Section 301 Committee.
